

Cookie Policy

When you visit our website, small data files called cookies are stored on your computer, mobile device, smart TV, or other internet-connected device. These cookies help us enhance your user experience by remembering your preferences and enabling certain functionalities.

Cookies allow the entity that placed them—either us or our trusted third-party partners—to recognize your device across different websites, services, sessions, and devices. This recognition helps in delivering a more personalized, consistent, and efficient browsing experience.

Cookies may collect a variety of information, including (but not limited to):

- Your Internet Service Provider (ISP)
- The type of operating system and browser you use
- Your IP address
- The date and time of your visit
- Pages visited and interactions on the site

Some cookies are essential for the proper functioning of the website, while others are used for analytics, personalization, and advertising purposes.

What cookies do we use, and for what purpose?

Section 1 - Strictly Necessary Cookies

Some cookies are necessary to ensure the full functionality of the website. These cookies allow you to use the website and log in to your account as intended. They also authenticate our users and prevent security risks and malicious behavior.

These cookies cannot be turned off.

The table below provides more information about these cookies:

Name of the cookie	Storage period	Objective	Owner of the cookie

Section 2 - Functional cookies

Functional cookies allow us to remember your preferences and choices in our online store, including login details, geographical location, language, currency, and enhanced content. This allows the online store to provide you with personalized features. Functionality cookies are used to improve the performance of websites, as without them, certain website features may not be available. Functionality cookies help to provide services that the user requests. However, they are not vital to the operation of a website. They are anonymous and do not track users' browsing activity on other websites.

The table below provides more information about these cookies:

Name of the cookie	Storage period	Objective	Owner of the cookie

Section 3 - Analytical (statistical) cookies

These cookies show us your preferences and how you use the website, helping us improve it. For example, they record the number of visitors to our website and different pages, the number of clicks and shares, and how users move around while using it. This information helps us improve our services, making it easier for users to find what they are looking for.

The table below provides more information about these cookies:

Name of the cookie	Storage period	Objective	Owner of the cookie
--------------------	----------------	-----------	---------------------

Section 4 - Advertising (Marketing) cookies

This type of cookie enables us to target products and services that may interest you. This way, when you next visit, we can provide you with advertising that is as relevant and useful to you as possible. These cookies may be provided by us or by third parties.

The table below provides more information about these cookies:

Name of the cookie	Storage period	Objective	Owner of the cookie

Types of cookies according to storage time

Cookies can be stored for different periods depending on the type and purpose of the cookie. They may be:

- Persistent/permanent cookies

Persistent cookies are stored in one of your browser's subfolders until you delete them manually or until the browser deletes them based on the period recorded in the cookie file. The period records validity is recorded in the cookie itself.

- Session cookies

Session cookies are deleted whenever the browser is closed. When you restart the browser and return to the website that created the cookie, it will not recognize you based on previous cookies.

What is the legal basis for using cookies?

When you first visit the website, you must give your prior consent to use cookies for purposes other than those necessary for the secure and efficient operation of the website, to provide full functionality, and to provide the services you have requested.

How do you manage cookies?

When you first visit our website, you can accept or decline different types of cookies.

If you wish to change your settings in the future, cookies can be disabled or removed with tools that are also available in most browsers. Each browser's settings are different and offer different functionality and management options. Please review your browser settings for more information on blocking, deleting, and disabling cookies.

In addition, you can set your browser to notify you when you receive a cookie, allowing you to decide whether to accept it. You also have the option to opt out of receiving cookies altogether. However, if you do not accept cookies, you cannot use your browser software or our website to its full functionality.
